YALE FUMBLES AT ORANGE.

"Pennsy" and Crescents at Eastern Park—Harvard Reuts Williams at Cambridge.

(Special to The Evening World.)

MANHATTAN FIELD, Oct. 20.—A day a trifle too warm for football, but of an ethereal mildness which permitted many admirers of the Champion Princeton team and Cornell eleven to wear ravishing toilets, brought a splendid representative football attendance.

By 2:45 Capt. Frenchard and his "Reds" were kicking goals under the tutelage of Alexander Mont, the entire outlet team, headed by Coach Marshall Newell, of Harvard, sitting on the clubhouse balcony watching them. Manager Ann, of Princeton, had insisted upon one fifty three badges, so the lines promised to be crowded with the usual mob of substitutes, coaches, eminent alumni and general throng of unofficial personages.

The eleven lined up as follows:

Princeton. Positions. Cornell.
Trenchard. Right End. McKeefer.
Right Tackle. McLaughlin.
Center. Frenchard.
Left Tackle. Taylor.
Left End. Brown.
Right Guard. Brown.
Quarter-back. Brown.
Right Half-back. Brown.
Full-back. Brown.

The game was called at 3:10 P. M., Cornell having the ball. Fennell kicked back to Princeton, and the ball was brought to the twenty yard line. Burr kicked thirty yards, Ohl returning
it to Princeton's eight-yard line.
Ohl went through left tackle and guard
for ten yards and then tried for goal
from field, but failed.

Time was called while Wyckoff responded in torn shirt. Ohl returned the kick of Burr to the twenty yard line.
Tenn's ten-yard line. On a revolving tackle, Cornell gained five yards.
Burr plucked through center for ten yards, and Wheeler ditto for three yards.
Barnett went right for five yards.
McKeefer ditto for three yards.
Wheeler gained fifteen yards
through center. McCormick broke ahead for three yards. Barnett dashed into Beasch for five yards.
Carried three Cornell men on his back
five yards. Mason downed Barnett's run after the Cornell ball on fumbles. Ohl kicked thirty yards to Burr. McCormick punched the ball to Burr. Burr Brown, and gained ten yards in splendid shape. Cornell got the ball through holding on the line. Ohl punted to Burr, who was downed in his tracks. Barnett sig-sagged across the field for fifteen yards.

Cornell was breaking the interference repulsively. Burr, Wyckoff, and Cornell captain, Barnett and McCormick tried
the end, but only made a couple of yards. McCormick broke through for Capt. Warner and Fennell for three yards. Cornell got the ball again on Princeton's twenty-yard line and
gains around right end and through Lea and Frenchard. Cornell men went tumble over several Cornell men in tackle to score thus far.

Walter Camp reveled the work and smiled significantly. Harry Brown made a running catch of Ohl's punt and ran twenty yards. Cornell got the ball and Barnett crowded through center for ten yards and again through guard and tackle for ten yards. Fennell kicked goal. Princeton, 6; Cornell, 0.

Ohl punted almost to the goal posts.
Barnett caught it and ran twenty yards.
Burr punted away down to Ohl. Wyckoff and Beach tandemed down the field for ten yards. Cornell got the ball and

Yale Too Strong.

But Hickey's Full Team Fumbles
Badly at Orange.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ORANGE OVAL, ORANGE, N. J., Oct.
20.—The first important game of the football season in the vicinity was played at
the Grove street grounds this afternoon
between the crack teams of Yale University and Orange Athletic Club.

The appearance of the Orange team
was greeted by a large and enthusiastic crowd, but of the New York colleges
only the eleven from New York arrived
from the early afternoon trains.

Fully 5,000 people were on the field when the playing began, at 3:30. Yale put in a strong team, and it was evident from the beginning that Hickey's team was the benefit of the practice. He did not play himself, but coached the play of
his team.

The eleven lined up in the following
order:

Orange. Positions. Yale.
Center. Hickey.
Left End. Dehaght.
Right Guard. Chadwick.
Quarter-back. Chadwick.
Right Half-back. Chadwick.
Full-back. Chadwick.

Pennsylvania won the toss and chose
the ball. Cornell, crediting the usual mob of substitutes, coaches, eminent
alumni and general throng of unofficial
personages.

line, time was called. Score—Harvard 9, Yale 0.

Fairchild made his second goal from the field, from the twenty-yard line. C.
Brewer kicked the ball toward Williams's goal, scoring a touchdown. Brewer kicked the goal. Score: Harvard, 23; Williams, 0.

Yale Too Strong.

But Hickey's Full Team Fumbles
Badly at Orange.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ORANGE OVAL, ORANGE, N. J., Oct.
20.—The first important game of the football season in the vicinity was played at
the Grove street grounds this afternoon
between the crack teams of Yale University and Orange Athletic Club.

The appearance of the Orange team
was greeted by a large and enthusiastic crowd, but of the New York colleges
only the eleven from New York arrived
from the early afternoon trains.

Fully 5,000 people were on the field when
the playing began, at 3:30. Yale put in
a strong team, and it was evident from the
beginning that Hickey's team was the benefit of the practice. He did not play himself, but coached the play of
his team.

The eleven lined up in the following
order:

Orange. Positions. Yale.
Center. Hickey.
Left End. Dehaght.
Right Guard. Chadwick.
Quarter-back. Chadwick.
Right Half-back. Chadwick.
Full-back. Chadwick.

Pennsylvania won the toss and chose
the ball. Cornell, crediting the usual
mob of substitutes, coaches, eminent
alumni and general throng of unofficial
personages.

The eleven lined up as follows:

Princeton. Positions. Cornell.
Trenchard. Right End. McKeefer.
Right Tackle. McLaughlin.
Center. Frenchard.
Left Tackle. Taylor.
Left End. Brown.
Right Guard. Brown.
Quarter-back. Brown.
Right Half-back. Brown.
Full-back. Brown.

The game was called at 3:10 P. M., Cornell having the ball. Fennell kicked
back to Princeton, and the ball was brought to the twenty yard line. Burr
kicked thirty yards, Ohl returning
it to Princeton's eight-yard line.
Ohl went through left tackle and guard
for ten yards and then tried for goal
from field, but failed.

Time was called while Wyckoff responded in torn shirt. Ohl returned the kick of Burr to the twenty yard line.
Tenn's ten-yard line. On a revolving
tackle, Cornell gained five yards.
Burr plucked through center for ten
yards, and Wheeler ditto for three yards.
Barnett went right for five yards.
McKeefer ditto for three yards.
Wheeler gained fifteen yards
through center. McCormick broke
ahead for three yards. Barnett dashed
into Beasch for five yards.
Carried three Cornell men on his back
five yards. Mason downed Barnett's run
after the Cornell ball on fumbles. Ohl kicked thirty yards to Burr. McCormick
punched the ball to Burr. Burr
Brown, and gained ten yards in splendid
shape. Cornell got the ball through holding on the line. Ohl punted to Burr,
who was downed in his tracks. Barnett
sig-sagged across the field for fifteen
yards.

Cornell was breaking the interference
repulsively. Burr, Wyckoff, and Cornell
captain, Barnett and McCormick tried
the end, but only made a couple of
yards. McCormick broke through for Capt. Warner and Fennell for three yards. Cornell got the ball again on Princeton's twenty-yard line and
gains around right end and through Lea and Frenchard. Cornell men went tumble over several Cornell men in
tackle to score thus far.

Walter Camp reveled the work and
smiled significantly. Harry Brown made
a running catch of Ohl's punt and ran
twenty yards. Cornell got the ball and Barnett crowded through center for ten
yards and again through guard and
tackle for ten yards. Fennell
kicked goal. Princeton, 6; Cornell, 0.

Ohl punted almost to the goal posts.
Barnett caught it and ran twenty yards.
Burr punted away down to Ohl. Wyckoff
and Beach tandemed down the field
for ten yards. Cornell got the ball and Barnett crowded through center for ten
yards and again through guard and
tackle for ten yards. Fennell kicked goal. Princeton, 6; Cornell, 0.
